

Consumers National Bank Adds Sarah Chronister To Agriculture Lending Department

Minerva, Ohio—Consumers National Bank announced today that it has expanded its Agricultural Lending Department with the appointment of Sarah Chronister as Assistant Agricultural Loan Officer. Chronister, who holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture from The Ohio State University, has experience in running and owning a farm in the Salineville-Lisbon area.

Sarah has worked for the USDA Natural Resource Conservation Services in Salem as a Soil Conservation Technician and for the Farm Service Agency as a Program Technician, while running a 160 acre local family farm. Throughout her educational and professional career, Sarah has gained extensive knowledge and experience in several agriculture sectors including: poultry, dairy, cattle, swine, and grazing programs.

“We are pleased to add Sarah’s unique blend of farming and agricultural-related government experience to our lending department. Her experience and expertise will help Consumers National Bank meet the financial needs of a vital segment of the local economy,” said Ralph Lober, President and CEO. “As a Columbiana County resident, Sarah understands the local challenges and is well-positioned to serve the farmers and agricultural-related businesses in the Eastern half of our market which includes Carroll, Columbiana, Mahoning, and adjacent counties. This addition will add capacity to our agricultural lending team and will allow us to continue the service standards we have built while serving the farming community over the last 47 years,” he added.
