Consumers National Bank Selects Greg Brokaw as Branch Manager for Its Jackson-Belden Branch

Minerva, Ohio—Consumers National Bank announced today that it has named Greg Brokaw manager of its Jackson-Belden branch. The branch is scheduled to open July 31, 2012.

Brokaw, a lifelong resident of Jackson Township, is a graduate of Jackson Local Schools and earned a degree in Industrial Management from the University of Akron. His twenty-plus years of banking experience include branch management, private banking, and commercial lending. He serves on the Board of the Jackson Local Foundation, coaches youth baseball, and has participated as a Junior Achievement volunteer.

“Greg is a welcome addition to the Consumers team. I look forward to working with him to serve families and small businesses in the Jackson-Belden area,” said James Wenderoth, Vice President, Branch Administration.

“We are excited to have Greg lead our Jackson-Belden branch staff,” said Ralph Lober, President and CEO. “His local ties and community involvement will help Consumers National Bank make a difference in the Jackson and Canton communities.”

Brokaw, who joined the Bank in June of this year, resides in Jackson Township with his family.
