Consumers National Bank Announces Free Financial Seminars For Women

Minerva, Ohio—Consumers National Bank announced today that it will be conducting two free financial seminar series especially for women this spring; one series in Jackson and the other series in Alliance.

The theme of the sessions is “Investing and Estate Planning.” Local industry experts will present information about investing and financial planning from a woman’s perspective. Topics will include an introduction to stocks, bonds, wills, estates and trusts, retirement and much more.

Consumers National Bank’s first series will be held in Jackson at the following locations and dates:

- Wednesday, March 14, from 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm at Shady Hollow Country Club
- Wednesday, March 21, from 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm at Shady Hollow Country Club
- Wednesday, March 28, from 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm at Jackson Township Branch of the Stark County District Library

Denise Sutton Downard, CEBS, LPL Financial Advisor, and Assistant Vice President at CNB Investments, will deliver the first two of the three sessions and will be focusing on investments. Other speakers include:

- Attorney Jennifer Lile shows how wills, trusts, probate, powers of attorney and estate planning can be made easier with a little know-how.
- There will also be a presentation on Social Security by a Representative from the Social Security Administration.

Attendance for the Jackson series is free, but seating is limited. Special preference will be shown to those who register for all three sessions at once. Attendees should call Pat Wood at 330-868-9053 or 800-948-1262, ext. 1153 to reserve a seat by Monday, March 11.

Consumers National Bank’s second series will be held in Alliance at the following locations and dates:

- Wednesday, March 20, from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm at Rodman Public Library
- Wednesday, April 3, from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm at Rodman Public Library
- Wednesday, April 17, from 2:00 pm to 4:00 pm at Rodman Public Library
