Consumers National Bank Adds Michele Harris To Mortgage Division At Jackson-Belden Office

Minerva, Ohio—Consumers National Bank announced today that it has hired Michele Harris as Underwriting Manager in the Mortgage Division at its Jackson-Belden office.

Harris, a lifelong resident of Stark County, has had a distinguished career at local community banks and is well-known and respected in the local mortgage industry. In her role at Consumers, Harris will underwrite mortgage loans for portfolio and for sale in the secondary market, establish investor relationships in order to provide the best service for the bank’s local customers, and provide local decision making on the loans that Consumers makes in all its markets.

“Michele is a welcome addition to the Consumers mortgage team. Her experience in mortgage underwriting, combined with her exceptional customer service make her an invaluable addition to our operations,” said Mike Stoffer, Vice President, Mortgage Lending.
