

CUSTOMERS VOTE FOR NEW DEBIT CARD DESIGNS THAT BENEFIT COMMUNITY

Ohio SPCA, 4-H, and McKinley Presidential Library & Museum To Receive Donations

Minerva, Ohio—Consumers National Bank announced today that it has introduced three new personal debit cards with unique graphic designs including pets, farm animals, and an Ohio landmark. The bank will make a donation of one dollar for every card opened to either the Ohio Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (SPCA), 4-H, or the McKinley Presidential Library & Museum.

The new debit card designs include:

- Agriculture—a group of dairy cows on this card represent the farming community. One dollar will be donated to 4-H by Consumers National Bank for every new agriculture card issued.
- Ohio Landmark—the stately McKinley monument in Canton is featured on this card. One dollar will be donated to the McKinley Presidential Library & Museum by Consumers National Bank for every new Ohio landmark card issued.
- Pets—a puppy and kitten snuggled together will please the pet lovers. One dollar will be donated to the Ohio SPCA by Consumers National Bank for every new pet card issued.

“People like to use debit cards that feature images that express their hobbies, their professions, and their interests,” said Steve Badman, Marketing Director at Consumers. “We asked our customers to vote on their favorite debit card designs, and we had a great response. Now they will have the opportunity to choose their favorite design from the three winners. Plus, we think customers will appreciate that Consumers Bank will donate one dollar to the organization associated with the card,” said Badman.
