

ULIK JOINS CONSUMERS NATIONAL BANK AS BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

Minerva, Ohio—Consumers National Bank has announced that Sean Ulik has joined the Minerva-based bank as a Business Development Officer in its Western Region. In this position, Ulik will be responsible for the bank’s commercial loan development efforts in western Stark, Wayne, and Tuscarawas counties. He will work from the bank’s Jackson-Belden branch on Dressler Road in Canton.

Ulik has more than 14 years of banking experience at regional and community banks. He worked with businesses in a variety of industries to accomplish their commercial loan objectives for expansion, inventory, equipment and real estate.

“Sean enables us to further strengthen our relationships in Stark County as well as expand our scope into Wayne and Tuscarawas counties. He joins our team with an extensive, successful history of developing lasting relationships with customers in these markets,” said Scott Dodds, Senior Vice President and Senior Lender of Consumers National Bank’s Western Region.

Ulik is a graduate of GlenOak High School and Kent State University. In addition, he has completed multiple credit training programs through the Community Bankers Association of Ohio (CBAO) University and various other institutes. In 2008, Ulik graduated from Leadership Wooster through the Wooster Chamber of Commerce.

Ulik is currently a Board Member of the Wayne County American Red Cross and Wooster Noon Lions as well as the Stark State College Business Communications Board. He is a Past President of the Wooster Young Professionals and has been actively involved with JRC (formerly J.R. Coleman) and YStark! in Canton.
