

CONSUMERS NATIONAL BANK NAMES TWO VICE PRESIDENTS IN AUDIT AND BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

Minerva, Ohio—Consumers National Bank announced today that the Board of Directors has approved the promotions of Barbara Cronin, Senior Auditor, and Debbie Miller, Commercial Account Specialist, to the level of Vice President.

“Over the last five years Barb Cronin has helped the bank build an effective and efficient internal audit program. Under her direction, the audit program effectively supports the organization’s growth and development,” said Ralph J. Lober, II, President & CEO.

“Debbie Miller has helped develop a commercial sales process that has raised the bank’s profile and reputation in the business community across our markets. With Debbie's leadership, Consumers has experienced significant growth in commercial deposits, cash management, and merchant services,” said Lober.

With these appointments the Board acknowledges the leadership positions both Cronin and Miller have assumed at Consumers National Bank.
