

Consumers National Bank Adds Diane Berger As Mortgage Loan Originator

Minerva, Ohio—Consumers National Bank announced today that it has hired Diane Berger as a Mortgage Loan Originator. Berger will report to Mike Stoffer, Vice President of Consumers Mortgage Services. Berger will work with clients to understand their borrowing needs and counsel them on home financing options including construction, government, and conventional mortgages. She is based at Consumers Salem Office at 141 South Ellsworth Avenue.

Diane is a 31-year veteran of the banking industry and has worked at various local and regional financial institutions. She has been helping clients with their mortgage loans since the early 1990's. "Diane is a great addition to our staff and I'm confident she will be able to provide top quality mortgage services to our clients in the Salem, Alliance and Lisbon areas," said Stoffer.

Berger graduated from Marlinton High School in Alliance, and is a lifelong resident of the area. Berger currently resides in Alliance with her Husband, Lee Berger and their son.
