CONSUMERS NATIONAL BANK DONATES 35th DAFFODIL DAIRY SALE AUCTION ART

Carrollton, Ohio—Two Directors of Consumers National Bank, Mike Schmuck, Jr. and Jim Kiko, Sr., successfully bid for the special dairy cover art on behalf of the bank at the annual Daffodil Dairy Sale in Carrollton this spring. The original artwork by local artist Cheri Bell appeared on the cover of the sale catalog and was auctioned to raise funds for Future Farmers of America (FFA) and 4-H scholarships.

Schmuck and Kiko presented the artwork to Steve Andrews who has been the auctioneer of the Daffodil Dairy Sale for 24 years. In brief remarks given at the event, Kiko commended Andrews for his support and dedication throughout his tenure as auctioneer.

Schmuck, a member of the Daffodil Dairy Sale Committee who also serves as pedigree announcer at the Sale, said, “The Daffodil Dairy Sale has been successful because it serves as a social event, a sale that brings calves and heifers to FHA and 4-H kids to purchase and raise, and a way to raise funds for college scholarships for our student-farmers.”

For 35 years, the Daffodil Dairy Sale Committee in conjunction with OSU Extension Office in Carroll County have been holding the annual one-day auction of all breeds of milking and dry cows, bred heifers, open heifers, show age calves, and service age bulls. The Daffodil Dairy Sale has become one of the longest running and most successful dairy sales in the United States.
