JOHNSTON JOINS CONSUMERS NATIONAL BANK AS VICE PRESIDENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES

Minerva, Ohio—Consumers National Bank has announced that Hillary Johnston has joined the Minerva-based bank as Vice President and Director of Human Resources. Johnston will support management and the bank’s 135 employees by managing all aspects of the bank’s human resources function including recruitment, employee development, compensation and benefits administration. Johnston has 17 years of progressive Human Resources related experience with Terry’s Tire Town, Inc. (TTT Holdings) of Alliance, Ohio.

“Hillary’s leadership, human resource management, and banking experience will enable Consumers National Bank to successfully transition our human resource operations from our retiring HR director,” said Ralph J. Lober, II, the bank’s President and CEO. “We expect her to become an integral member of our management team as we continue to grow and solidify the bank throughout northeast Ohio. Stella and Hillary will complement each other as we move through the transition period,” said Lober.

Johnston is a Business Management graduate of Walsh University, a SHRM Senior Certified Professional (SHRM-SCP), and a Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR[®]). She is a member of the Society of Human Resource Managers (SHRM), Stark County Human Resources Association, Alliance of Office Professionals, Sigma Beta Delta, and a past member of the Advisory Board of the University of Akron, College of Business. Johnston is an Ohio native and resides in Canton.
