Consumers National Bank Adds Laurie Corbit As Mortgage Loan Originator

Minerva, Ohio—Consumers National Bank announced today that it has hired Laurie Corbit as a Mortgage Loan Originator. Corbit will report to Mike Stoffer, Vice President of Consumers Mortgage Services, and work from the bank’s mortgage department in the Jackson-Belden office at 4026 Dressler Road NW in Canton. Corbit will consult with clients to understand their borrowing needs and counsel them on home financing options including construction, government, and conventional mortgages.

“Laurie has 20 years of experience as a realtor and mortgage originator and has worked at a local realty agency and various regional financial institutions. Laurie is a great addition to our staff and I’m confident she will be able to provide top quality mortgage services to our clients at our East Canton, Hartville, Louisville, Malvern, and Minerva branches,” said Stoffer.

Corbit is a graduate of Hoover High School and Kent State University. She is actively involved in the community as a member of the North Canton Chamber of Commerce, Jackson-Belden Chamber of Commerce, and Women’s Council of Realtors. Corbit is a lifelong resident of North Canton where she currently resides.
