Consumers National Bank Joins K.W. Hoopes & Assoc. To Present Free Business Breakfast Seminar

Minerva, Ohio – Consumers National Bank is joining with Kenny W. Hoopes, CPA, CFP, of K.W. Hoopes & Associates, Inc. to provide a free business seminar entitled, Health Care and Tax Law: What Change Means for Your Business. The seminar will be held on Wednesday, November 17, at the Edgewater Golf Club in Minerva and begins at 7:15 AM with buffet breakfast provided. Seating is limited and those businesses that wish to attend should register by Friday, November 12 by calling 330-868-9053.

“Consumers National Bank is committed to providing added value to the business community by presenting these free informational seminars,” said Consumers National Bank President and CEO Ralph Lober, II. “This seminar is the fourth in a series of seminars that we have held in conjunction with local accounting firms in our different markets. Each seminar focuses on a specific, timely business tax topic and provides valuable information for our customers. We are pleased to partner with Kenny Hoopes who brings 35 years of accounting and tax experience and local perspective to the presentation,” said Lober.

Understanding how the new health care plan will effect companies is a topic currently on every business owner’s mind. This seminar will present information that can help business owners prepare their company for tax season in light of changes resulting from the new health care plan.

The November 17 breakfast seminar is free and open to the business community. Prospective attendees should reserve a seat by calling Consumers National Bank at 330-868-9053 by Friday, November 12.
