

CONSUMERS NATIONAL BANK NAMES NEW VICE PRESIDENT

Minerva, Ohio—Consumers National Bank has announced that the Board of Directors has approved the promotion of Sarah Grubbs, Agricultural Loan Officer, to the level of Vice President.

Grubbs joined Consumers National Bank’s commercial lending department in 2012 and has been highly successful in developing and assisting new agricultural clients throughout the bank’s market.

Grubbs, who holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Agriculture from The Ohio State University, has experience in owning and operating a 160-acre local family farm in Jefferson County. Throughout her educational and professional career, she has gained extensive knowledge and experience in several agriculture sectors including poultry, dairy, cattle, swine, and grazing programs.

“Sarah has helped many of our farming customers grow their operations over the years. Her customer service and involvement in the local agricultural community personify the bank’s mission, vision, and values. With this appointment the Board acknowledges the leadership position that Sarah has assumed at Consumers National Bank and in the community,” said Ralph J. Lober, II, President & CEO.
