

ESHLER JOINS CONSUMERS NATIONAL BANK AS MORTGAGE SERVICES MANAGER

Minerva, Ohio—Consumers National Bank announced today that it has hired Daniel Eshler as Vice President, mortgage services. Eshler will report to Executive Vice President and Senior Loan Officer Scott Dodds of Consumers National Bank.

“I am very pleased that Dan has joined our management team and will lead the bank’s mortgage operations. He brings prior mortgage origination group management experience to this leadership position at Consumers Bank. Dan’s full range of mortgage banking and lending experience will further develop our residential mortgage business,” said Dodds.

“Consumers National Bank’s Board of Directors and executive management believe that it is the responsibility of a community bank to provide residential mortgages in the communities that it serves. Customers appreciate community banks and are turning to them for their mortgage and banking relationships. Under Dan’s leadership, we intend to meet customer needs with a top-tier mortgage department,” said President and CEO Ralph J. Lober, II of Consumers National Bank.

Eshler has held several positions during his 15 years in the banking industry. The majority of his career has been spent as a lender assisting personal and business clients with their borrowing needs. As a lending manager, he has coached and developed loan officers.

Eshler graduated from Springfield Local High School in New Middletown, Ohio earned a Bachelor’s Degree from the University of Mount Union in Alliance, Ohio. He volunteers as a youth basketball coach at the Louisville YMCA, and is a member of the MClub at Mount Union and the Stark County Board of Realtors. Eshler resides in Louisville with his wife Deanna and two children.
