

McNAMEE JOINS CONSUMERS NATIONAL BANK AS BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

Minerva, Ohio—Consumers National Bank announced today that Joseph P. McNamee, III has joined the Minerva-based bank as Vice President, Business Development Officer at its Business Lending office in Stow at 3885 Darrow Road. In this position, McNamee will be responsible for developing commercial loan relationships with businesses in Summit, Portage, and Cuyahoga counties. He will report to Scott Dodds, Senior Vice President & Senior Lender at Consumers.

“We are extremely pleased that Joe has joined our team to help us grow our Akron Metro presence and service our current customers in the area. His significant banking experience coupled with his knowledge of the local businesses will be a recipe for success as we carry out our strategic plan,” said Dodds.

McNamee has 12 years of banking experience primarily as a commercial lender at a bank in the Summit County market. He graduated from Stow Munroe Falls High School and is a graduate of the University of Toledo where he earned a Bachelor’s degree in Marketing and Financial Services.

McNamee is a member of Rotary Club of Cuyahoga Falls and volunteers with the Akron Canton Food Bank. He resides in Stow with his wife Mandy and their two children.
