CONSUMERS NATIONAL BANK NAMES NEW CHIEF CREDIT OFFICER

Minerva, Ohio—Consumers National Bank has announced that Suzanne Mikes has been named Vice President and Chief Credit Officer. In this executive management position, she will assume responsibility for the bank’s credit policy, underwriting, and portfolio management as well as the collections function. Mikes will report to Ralph J. Lober, II, President & CEO, and work at the bank’s corporate headquarters in Minerva.

“Suzanne brings many years of commercial credit experience to her role as Chief Credit Officer. Her proven record of working with lenders and small business borrowers in a community bank environment will serve the bank’s commercial and agriculture customers well. I am pleased that we were able to fill this critical position with a candidate of Suzanne’s caliber,” said Lober.

Mikes received her Bachelor of Arts in International Business/Economics and German from University of Mount Union and acquired her Master’s Degree in Business Administration at Kent State University.

Mikes is actively involved in her community and currently volunteers as a Girl Scout Troop Leader. She organized and led the Green Girl Scout Service Unit and worked closely with the Mayor of Green to develop a Bird Sanctuary in the City of Green as part of a larger community initiative.

Mikes resides in Green with her husband Jason and four children.
