HOLLAND JOINS CONSUMERS NATIONAL BANK AS COMMERCIAL LENDER IN WOOSTER

Minerva, Ohio—Consumers National Bank announced today that John A. Holland, III has joined the Minerva-based bank as Vice President and Business Development Officer in Wooster at 146 E. Liberty Street. In this position, Holland will be responsible for developing commercial loan relationships with businesses throughout Wayne County. He will report to Scott Dodds, Senior Vice President & Senior Lender at Consumers Bank.

“We are very pleased that John has joined our team to help us grow Consumers Bank’s presence in Wooster and service our current customers in the area. His significant banking experience coupled with his knowledge of the local businesses will accelerate our expansion in Wayne County,” said Dodds.

“Consumers National Bank is a strong, local financial organization with a solid history of community lending,” said Ralph J. Lober, II, president and CEO of Consumers National Bank. “As part of our long-term strategic plan, Consumers is taking this opportunity to provide a local office for our existing Wayne County clients and bring our unique business lending philosophy to more businesses and farms in the area,” said Lober.

Holland has more than 40 years of banking experience primarily in commercial banking as a commercial lender, portfolio manager, and credit analyst among other positions. He attended Bowling Green University and has a degree from the American Institute of Banking. Holland has completed multiple financial industry seminars on loan documentation, real estate lending, and commercial lending.

Holland is President of Clinton Water and Sewer District in Mount Vernon, a member of the Rotary Club in Wooster and the Wooster Chamber of Commerce. He resides in Mount Vernon with his wife Karen.
