CONSUMERS NATIONAL BANK ADDS NEW BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT OFFICER

Minerva, Ohio—Consumers National Bank has announced that Laura Horovitz has joined the bank as Vice President and Business Development Officer. She will serve the greater Akron market from the bank’s Business Loan Center in Stow. Horovitz will report to Mike Benson, Vice President and Akron Metro Manager.

“We are excited to have Laura on the team. She has a great history of helping business owners grow their companies and is an excellent addition to our organization,” said Benson.

Horovitz has 30 years of banking experience, predominantly as a commercial lender at regional banks. In her most recent position, she was as a commercial banker and a business banker, and has held a variety of roles including branch manager.

Horovitz earned a BA in Finance & Marketing and an MBA, both from Kent State University. She lives in Portage County with her husband Brad and has two adult sons.
