Consumers National Bank Adds Christine Mancuso As Commercial Deposit Specialist

Minerva, Ohio—Consumers National Bank announced today that it has hired Christine Mancuso as a Commercial Deposit Specialist. Mancuso will report to Debbie Miller, Vice President Commercial Account Specialist, and work from the bank’s Salem branch at 141 S. Ellsworth Avenue in Salem to cover the Columbiana and Jefferson county markets.

Mancuso will assist new and existing commercial clients with enhancing their productivity and financial operations by taking advantage of the full suite of cash management services that Consumers National Bank provides, including business deposit accounts, and cash management services.

“Christine has nearly 40 years of banking experience and has spent much of her career working with clients in Columbiana and Mahoning counties,” said Miller. “Christine understands the local environment that our business clients operate in and will be a valuable asset to both our clients and Consumers National Bank,” said Miller.

“Consumers National Bank offers state-of-the-art cash management services to help our business clients manage their companies in a world where more and more business is conducted online,” said Derek Williams, Senior Vice President of Retail Banking and Operations. “The addition of Christine will enable us to assist new clients in Jefferson County where the bank recently opened a new office in addition to our Columbiana County market,” said Williams.

A lifelong resident of Salem, Mancuso graduated from Salem High School and attended many banking classes at Youngstown State University. She is a graduate of the Graduate School of Retail Bank Management at Furman University.

An active volunteer, Mancuso has volunteered at many charitable organizations. She is currently a member of the Board of the Beatitude House in Youngstown and serves on its Development Committee. She also volunteers at Salem Regional Medical Center and serves on the Salem City Council. Mancuso resides in Salem with her husband Michael Mancuso.
