

Consumers Bancorp, Inc. Begins Trading on OTCQB Under Ticker Symbol CBKM

Minerva, Ohio—Consumers Bancorp, Inc. announced today that it will begin trading its common stock on the OTC Market Group’s OTCQB® Venture Market under the ticker symbol “CBKM” effective today, October 23, 2017.

“Consumers Bancorp, Inc. has been traded on the Pink Open Market, and we believe that trading our shares on OTCQB Venture Market is a natural way to broaden awareness of our company among investors,” said Ralph J. Lober, II, President and CEO of Consumers National Bank.

“Participation on the OTCQB Venture Market provides additional channels for information about Consumers Bancorp, Inc. and its stock to be disseminated through investor resources such as Morningstar Coverage, Real-Time Level 2 Quote Display®, OTC Disclosure & News Service®, Blue Sky Monitoring Service, and the Visitor Center Access. By increasing awareness of our company and stock availability, we anticipate improved liquidity of CBKM shares,” said Lober.

The OTCQB® Venture Market, operated by OTC Markets Group Inc., requires companies to remain current and compliant in their reporting, and undergo an annual verification and management certification process. These standards provide improved investor confidence through verified information, as well as greater information availability, and transparent prices for investors with Real Time Level 2 quotes.

Consumers National Bank provides a complete range of banking and other investment services to businesses and clients through its thirteen full service locations and two loan production offices in Carroll, Columbiana, Jefferson, Stark, Summit and Wayne counties in Ohio. Information about Consumers National Bank can be accessed on the internet at <http://www.consumersbank.com>.

###

The information contained in this press release contains “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements may involve risks and uncertainties that are difficult to predict, may be beyond Consumers’ control and could cause actual results to differ materially from those described in such statements. Although Consumers believes that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, Consumers can give no assurance that such expectations will prove to be correct. The forward-looking statements included in this discussion speak only as of the date they are made, and, except as required by law, Consumers undertakes no obligation to update these forward-looking statements to reflect subsequent events or circumstances. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those suggested by these forward-looking statements and that could adversely affect Consumers’ performance include, but are not limited to: material unforeseen changes in the financial condition or results of Consumers National Bank’s customers; the economic impact from the oil and gas activity in the region could be less than expected or the timeline for development could be longer than anticipated; regional and national economic conditions becoming less favorable than expected, resulting in, among other things, a deterioration in credit quality of assets and the underlying value of collateral could prove to be less valuable than otherwise assumed or debtors being unable to meet their obligations; pricing and liquidity pressures that may result in a rising market rate environment; competitive pressures on product pricing and services; rapid fluctuations in market interest rates could result in changes in fair market valuations and net interest income; and the nature, extent, and timing of government and regulatory actions.