CONSUMERS NATIONAL BANK APPOINTS
DEBBIE MILLER AS AVP, COMMERCIAL ACCOUNT SPECIALIST

Minerva, Ohio—Consumers National Bank announced today that Debbie J. Miller recently joined the bank as Assistant Vice President, Commercial Account Specialist. Miller will make sales and service calls on the bank’s commercial customers from her base at the Consumers National Bank office at 440 W. Noble Street in East Canton.

“Debbie has more than 30 years of community banking experience and has spent the latter part of her career working with small businesses in the bank’s market area,” said Senior Vice President Paul B. Hugenberg, III. “Debbie understands the local environment that our business customers operate in and will be a valuable asset to both our customers and Consumers National Bank,” said Hugenberg.

In her new position, Miller will assist new and existing commercial customers with enhancing their productivity and financial operations by taking advantage of the full suite of online deposit services that Consumers National Bank provides, including merchant services, remote check deposit, payroll services, internet banking, and more.

Prior to joining Consumers National Bank, Miller held positions in business banking, cash management, business development, branch management, and training at local and regional Ohio banks. She is a graduate of Kent/Stark College and the Harry Blythe School of Banking. In addition she obtained Life and Health Annuity licensure, earned three certificates from the American Institute of Banking, and has extensive experience as a Cohen Brown sales trainer. Miller’s community service has included volunteering with the Aultman Hospital Angel Auction, J.R. Coleman Center, Pathway Caring for Children, and Make a Wish Foundation through the Jackson-Belden Chamber of Commerce. Miller and her family reside in North Canton.

Miller can be reached at 330-488-0577 and dmiller@consumersbank.com.
