Free Estate Planning Seminar For Women Sponsored By Consumers National Bank In Hartville

Hartville, Ohio – Consumers National Bank is inviting the public to a free Estate Planning for Women seminar on Thursday afternoon, August 4 from 2 pm to 4 pm at the bank's Hartville office at 1215 W. Maple Street. Attendees will learn about a variety of estate planning topics from Jennifer Lile, Esq., with Krugliak, Wilkins, Griffiths & Dougherty Company, L.P.A., and Robert Fenn, Public Affairs Specialist at the Social Security Administration.

"This free seminar is the third in a series of seminars that were developed specifically to address the financial interests of women," said Denise Sutton Downard, Financial Advisor with Consumers National Bank. "I have met many women in my career who asked me lots of basic questions about their retirement, Social Security benefits, wills, and estate taxes. As part of Consumers National Bank's commitment to the community, we developed a series of seminars that are free and open to the public to address these issues," said Downard. Consumers invites knowledgeable professionals from law firms, accounting firms, and state and federal agencies to share their knowledge and answer the questions women have about these important topics.

Jennifer Lile, Esq. is a director with Krugliak, Wilkins, Griffiths & Dougherty Company, L.P.A. Her practice focuses on the areas of estate and special needs planning, trust, probate and elder law. Prior to entering private practice, she served as magistrate at the Stark County Probate Court from 2000 to 2005. Jennifer graduated cum laude from the University of Akron School of Law.

Robert Fenn has served at the Social Security Administration for over a decade holding positions such as Service Representative specializing in Retirement, Survivors, Disability and Medicare Insurance benefits and now as Public Affairs Specialist conducting outreach, media relations, and public presentations for several Ohio counties. He is a graduate of the University of Akron.

Estate Planning for Women is the third in a series of free financial planning seminars sponsored by Consumers National Bank. The first seminar Investing for Women I Financial Planning I covered monthly budgets, emergency funds, stocks, bonds and mutual funds. Investing for Women II, covered life insurance, annuities, risk vs. reward, and determining "what is right for you."

Women interested in attending this free seminar in Hartville should contact Denise Sutton Downard at 330-868-9047 or ddownard@consumersbank.com.
